er who kissed the pretty girl and got a beating for it, as was stated in yesterday's GAsays that the preacher, after he entered the parlor with his sister, asked her to sit by him on the sofa, which she declined to do; that Mr Weaver then crossed the room and asked his sister to kiss him, and, upon her refusal, attempted to kiss her by force. The young lady then ran from the room and informed her sister, Mrs. Oldfield. She demanded an explanation from Mr Weaver, but it was not satisfactory and the matter was reported to the young lady's brother. Mr. Wise then called on Mr. Weaver and demanded an explanation. Mr. Weaver and the thought that his explanation to Mrs. Oldfield was ample. Mr. Wise asked Mr. Weaver to take a walk with him. Mr. Weaver what asked was his intention. Mr. Wise intimated that it was his intention to beat him unless the preacher gave a more satisfactory explanation. Littell's Living Age. It is announced that the publishers of the old standard electric weekly, LITTELL'S LIVING AGE, are about to introduce several new and valuable features in their magazine. The most important of these is a Monthly Supplement, given without additional cost to the subscribers, which will contain Readings from American Magazines, Readings from New American Magazines, Readings from New Books, and also a list of Books of the Month. It is also proposed to extend their field by giving occasional translations of noteworthy articles from the French, German, Spanish and Italian reviews and magazines.

A year's subscription to THE LIVING AGE, will then include more than thirty-five hundred pages filled with the best things in current periodical and general literature, and making four large volumes, for only six dollars.

Fach of the weekly numbers of the magazine contains sixty-four pages. Fiction, travel, essays, biography, poetry and a wide range of general discussion and information are included in the contents. To new subscribers remitting before November 1st (in which month the first of these new features will be introduced) will be sent gratis the intervening weekly issues from date of payment. Addres, The Living Age Co., 131/2 Bromfield Street, Boston, Mass.
